

Dear students, I, on behalf of the college, welcome you all to the Premier Institute PGGC-11, Chandigarh. The college is proud to have the newly admitted candidates and is delighted as well as ready to serve you for a progressive academic excellence. I am sure that the feeling is going to be completely mutual because you too are going to make the college proud with your achievements as our alumni.

We understand that the world is going through a period of crisis in which everything is being affected. However, in the present scenario, our college has geared up to provide you complete online education. You can read more about resources and infrastructure of the college in the prospectus on the college website. The college website is a very important aspect of keeping updated. For the time being, the college website will give you a complete insight into the college working. Please make a habit of checking it regularly for updates/information. Kindly improve your e-abilities as it is the need of the hour. Always remain in touch as it is very important that you attend all your classes regularly. In case of any difficulty kindly contact the Head of the respective departments on phone (number on website) and I am sure staff members will be delighted to assist you. We have managed enough resources to reach all of you effectively and the staff of the college will go an extra mile to make your online learning fruitful and interesting. Your co-operation is very important for creating a perfect learning environment.

The college will strive to provide you with all the facilities and resources possible in this tough situation. PGGC-11, not only stands for an unbiased and effective academic atmosphere but also strives to impart moral ethics. I am sure that our dear students are well aware of the strength of the three virtues: Love, Kindness and Forgiveness (LKF). The staff of the college believes strongly in imparting this magic because these virtues go a long way in safeguarding from any emotional or physical difficulty that one ever encounters. The academic excellence and moral values go hand in hand to create a perfect mixture for overall personality development. The institute hopes that this pandemic will be over soon and we are looking forward to your physical presence with open arms. However, in the meantime please be the strength of your family and take care of your parents. Patience is the friend and irritability is the enemy.

Finally, I strongly assert:

Dear students, the embrace of the PGGC-11 is going to be as safe and as encouraging as your parents lap. Try to learn maximum and interact as much with your teachers. We are all there for you. I once again welcome you to the PGGC-11 family.

God bless us all.
